

General information for authors

The LingUU (Under)graduate Journal of Linguistics publishes contributions that belong to the following categories:

- Research articles: articles based on course papers or theses, research proposals are also accepted;
- InternExtern: articles based on internship projects or semesters abroad;
- Book reviews.

In addition, it is possible to inform the editorial board about your opinion on any topic discussed in one of the previous issues, to give feedback, to provide additional information, or to notify us about books you like to see reviewed or content you wish to be included in the upcoming issue.

Submission

Thank you for your interest in submitting your work to LingUU! We are looking forward to receiving your contribution that hopefully results in a publication in the journal's forthcoming issue. Before submitting, check if you meet the requirements below.

- Please read the separate guidelines for authors on our website carefully before submitting your work.
- Please make sure the manuscript is complete and formatted as described in our guidelines.
- Please submit illustrations and images separately via our submission form, preferably in .svg format. You can use an online converting tool if necessary. Tables are preferably placed in the text. Make sure the images are in high quality (300+ dpi) and that graphs are also readable in black and white i.e. do not use colours that can be mixed up when changed to black and white.
- In support of open science, we aim to be as transparent as possible. To ensure this, please include your contact information (email address) in the manuscript, as well as a funding statement (regardless of whether you actually received funding) and a data availability statement. More information can be found in the specific guidelines.
- Please give your manuscript the following name:
lastname_initial_year_category.docx. Add possible infixes after the initials. Examples:
  - jansen_ha_2016_bookreview.docx
  - bakker_s_de_2015_abroad.docx

If you submit a research paper, please note that you might be required to submit additional forms or seek ethical approval. Please refer to our guidelines for more information or contact us via email if you have any questions.
